

Rosebank School 50th Jubilee

Newsletter No. 1 August 2005

Greetings to all pupils, ex-pupils, past and present staff, past committee members, past and present Board of Trustees members, parents and friends.

In 2007 Rosebank School will be 50 years old and we are organising a celebration to be held over the weekend of Friday 2 February – Sunday 4 February 2007.

Our tentative programme includes:

Friday 2 February

- Lunch for past and present staff, Board and School Committee members
- Registration afternoon including the chance to meet old friends over drinks and nibbles

Saturday 3 February

- 2.00 pm – Official ceremony including a tree painting and cake cutting ceremony
- Evening – Meal and dance

Sunday 4 February

- School assembly (including a special guest speaker) followed by a barbeque lunch.

It may appear to be a long way off but 2007 will soon be here and we will be busy contacting people, organising venues, caterers, printers and speakers. Our aim is to mark Rosebank's 50th birthday with a huge celebration for all those who have been part of the Rosebank family over the last 50 years.

What do we want?

- We want you to be part of this! We need expressions of interest from all those members of the Rosebank family who intend participating in this event.
- We want your memories, stories, photos, articles and memorabilia to help us write the history of Rosebank's first 50 years and to display for all to enjoy at the jubilee.
